問8 次の英文を読んで、あと(ア)～(イ)の間に答へなさい。

Taichi, Miho and Chris are the *members of the *volunteer club at their school and they are thinking about helping people *in need. They are talking with their *ALT, Mr. Hill in their *classroom. He is from *New Zealand.

Mr. Hill : Hi, Taichi, Miho and Chris. Today, we're going to talk about people in need.

What can you do for these people?

Taichi : Well, my mother and a *staff member really helped my mother's friend. Can I tell my story?

Mr. Hill : Of course, Taichi.

Taichi : Last Saturday, my mother and I went to a restaurant with my mother's friend, Mayumi. She uses a *white cane with her right hand, so my mother walked "on the left hand side" *ahead of her. Mayumi *held my mother's right *elbow.

Miho : Your mother didn't walk next to Mayumi or on the right hand side?

Mr. Hill : No. Mayumi can't walk well if you are next to her or on the *same side of her white cane.

Chris : Then, when they walked into a *narrow street, your mother said, "We're going to walk into a narrow street, so please be *careful." "Right?"

Taichi : That's right! Why do you know that?

Chris : One of my friends in my country, America, is just like her, and she told me so.

Mr. Hill : I see. Taichi, did you have a good time at the restaurant?

Taichi : Yes. The staff members of the restaurant were very nice.

Miho : How was their help?

Taichi : They were very *professional. After Mayumi's *order, one of the staff members came with some of the *dishes.

Miho : Did the staff member say anything?

Taichi : She said like this. "Your *pizza is at three o'clock, and your drink is at two o'clock. The *knife and *fork are next to your pizza. Your *salad is at nine o'clock. Will this be OK?"

Miho : Is that "the *clock reference system"? I read an *article on the Internet. In the article, a staff member of a restaurant also said the same thing to a *guest, and the guest was so happy.

Mr. Hill : That's right, Miho. That is "the clock reference system" and you can tell people the *position of the dishes and drinks *by using the numbers of the *clock.

Taichi : Mayumi said to the staff member, "You are so kind! This is the first time to *experience such *kindness. I will come to this restaurant again. Thank you so much!"

Chris : I think that .

Miho : Really? We can help *any *person in need in the world!

Mr. Hill : Yes. Helping people is not a difficult thing. The most important thing is to be able to *put yourselves in someone else's shoes. So, how about starting now?

Taichi, Miho and Chris : Sure!
